Blue KC Sporting Samaritan

Eastwood Hills Elementary fourth grade teacher Amber Nieznajko was selected as a 2021 Blue KC Sporting Samaritan. Each season Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Kansas City (Blue KC) and Sporting Kansas City team up to recognize Blue KC Sporting Samaritans, which highlights students and teachers who make the Kansas City community a better place to live, work and play. Nieznajko was selected for her dedication to the Eastwood Hills Elementary School community and the students and families it serves. She serves as a teacher leader, data review team leader for her grade level, chair of the courtyard beautification committee, and head coach of a social-emotional running club for boys at Eastwood Hills. She is also a member of the PTA Council at Eastwood Hills.

Sleep in Heavenly Peace

On Saturday, Sept. 18, New Trails Early Learning Center staff collaborated with Raytown Three Trails Kiwanis and Blue Ridge Christian Church to build around 50 beds for children in the community.
