Former Cardinal Drafted into the NFL

Raytown South High School alum Jabril Cox was drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in the 4th round of the NFL Draft. During his time as a Cardinal, Cox was a three-sport athlete in football, basketball, and track. Cox is the highest NFL draft pick in Raytown South High School history and is the third Cardinal to be selected to play in the NFL.

Biliteracy Seal

Nine students from around the District have earned the Distinguished Missouri Seal of Biliteracy (SoBL) in Spanish. The SoBL certifies students as bilingual in the state of Missouri and proficient in Spanish. In order to achieve the SoBL, students must complete five years of Spanish, create a portfolio, and pass an assessment test. Raytown School District students to achieve their SoBL from Raytown High School include Madisen Berry, Yamila Chavez-Flores, Rianna Ellis, Johnathan Martinez, Daysha Sipho, Ashley Spears, Presley Stewart, and Katie Valdovinos and from Raytown South High School student Ashley Rodriguez Vargas.

Northwood Graduation

Northwood School and the District held a special ceremony for all 2021 Northwood School graduates and their families. The special ceremony was held in the newly renovated Raytown High School auditorium.

RSA grad party
